

REACTIVE MATTRESSES

Combining their heritage in handcrafting luxury beds with the best of modern technology, Hypnos has developed the ReActive No Need To Turn pocket spring sleep support system.

Delivering the ultimate in mattress comfort, each barrel shaped ReActive pocket spring is made from over four feet of high tensile steel wire. This delivers the comfort and support you expect from Hypnos without the need to seasonally turn your mattress.

Surrounded by sumptuous layers of natural upholstery, this innovative Hypnos pocket spring system will give you the optimum combination of individual comfort and total body support for a truly heavenly night's sleep.

Benefits

- Deep pocket springs embrace the body giving added support
- No need to turn
- Edge to edge support
- Individual comfort to prevent rolling together

REACTIVE PILLOWS

Building on many years expertise in pocket spring technology, Hypnos has developed a pocket sprung pillow. The Hypnos ReActive Pillow actively supports your head in the optimum position to help keep your spine straighter during sleep, regardless of how much you move in the night.

Unlike conventional pillows that need to be fluffed up to regain their original feeling of comfort, the pocket spring construction allows Hypnos ReActive Pillows to instantly spring back into shape. Air can also flow through the pillow to help you sleep at a more comfortable temperature.
